Victorian Outside - Contemporary Inside

Victorian Outside - Contemporary Inside

In a first class location on the edge of the action, this stylish town residence over two levels has fabulous state of the art appointments combined with period splendor. Behind the restored heritage frontage with its bull nose verandah, this newly completed brilliant inner city retreat has resulted in a home of amazing livability and warmth. Comprising three excellent bedrooms (master suite with walk through robe and exquisite bathroom), the rear opens to a designer kitchen with spacious living/dining areas leading to a stunning alfresco courtyard oasis, all completed with sustainable features and exacting attention to detail. Additional treats include Carrara marble finishes, ducted air conditioning, original and Royal Oak flooring, gas log fireplace, excellent under roof and external storage areas. Note: Second street frontage to Nelson Road at rear.
